Apply the wisdom of different processing styles and a variety of expressive modes to open up creative possibilities. Established conventions may need to be challenged or worked with. Ask how this session could be more fun in order to better accomplish its goal.
Perspective

Understand divergent ways of seeing an issue to support the group in openly and thoughtfully exploring options. Be flexible and use your imagination in considering a variety of vantage points. The key is in how you look at something.

Modelling

Cultivate essential skills and responsibilities for both facilitator and participants, to ensure the process goes well and to demonstrate good group practice. Leading by action and example, guide the group toward effective personal and collective self-responsibility.

Inquiry & Synthesis

Discover coherence and shared meaning to move toward convergence. By gathering knowledge and teasing out the threads of common understanding, you can arrive at consensus and clear outcomes.

Faith

Trust and accept what happens in a spirit of letting go and letting come. Invite the mystery and complex magic of emergence. This quality is felt as a deep sense of connection not only to those assembled and to the work’s purpose, but to the larger universe as well.
